Message from the President and Principal

It is an honor and a privilege for us to be able to share with you this inaugural newsletter for Cristo Rey De La Salle East Bay High School St. Elizabeth Campus. We are excited to be building relationships with neighbors and families, partnering with local businesses and corporations, collaborating with thought leaders in youth development, family support and education, and preparing to welcome a class of 140 first year students in July 2018 for our Alpha Summer Institute.

We hope that you will find in these pages a small glimpse of the miraculous educational faith community that is growing again in Fruitvale. Most schools and classrooms are designed for a mythical “average” student who doesn’t exist in reality. At Cristo Rey De La Salle, we are designing and building a program that sees and responds to the unique gifts and talents of every individual—student, parent, teacher, neighbor, friend, volunteer, donor—with one outcome in mind: to transform the world through education and work, one heart at a time!

We are grateful for the incredible support we have already received from so many individuals, families, groups, foundations and businesses. As we move into the Christmas season, we invite those with a personal connection to this community to continue on with us, and those who are new to join us on our journey toward revitalization. Please read through these pages, come by for a visit, and let’s continue the conversation.

Peace,

Mike Anderer, President & CEO

- Instills business etiquette, social skills and self-efficacy
- Reinforces the academic curriculum and promotes a college-going culture
- Operates as a staffing agency and is Department of Labor- compliant
- Coordinates transportation and lunch for students

Please contact us if you'd like to learn more about becoming a Corporate Partner or mentor.

Our Curriculum

Our Personalized Learning Curriculum allows students to forge their own path and take an active role in their education because no one is "average." Every student learns differently. What works for one student may not work for another. And what students do learn has to be important to them. Our curriculum will enhance students' capacity to think differently about their place in the world and their capacity to change it.

Our innovative approach is guided by four key principles:

- PATH: Students are offered multiple learning pathways to develop skills and knowledge.
- PACE: Students decide the rate at which they work on and master concepts.
- PEOPLE: Teachers and other staff act as mentors and coaches to help students reach content mastery and develop a voice to reach a global audience.
- PLACE: Students access diverse learning spaces that maximize learning time.
- AGENCY: Students reflect on and develop the skills they need to drive their learning and invent the future.

GUIDING PRINCIPLES of PERSONALIZED LEARNING

The Next Evolution:

Cristo Rey De La Salle St. Elizabeth Campus

St. Elizabeth High School was and is an educational faith community that gathered, learned, celebrated, served and evolved for almost 100 years at 1530 34th Avenue, in the heart of Fruitvale in the City of Oakland. Cristo Rey De La Salle is the next expression, the next evolutionary stage of this same educational faith community, rooted in the spirits of St. Elizabeth of Hungary and St. John Baptist de la Salle.

Cristo Rey

Cristo Rey De La Salle East Bay High School, St. Elizabeth Campus is a member of the Cristo Rey Network and uses a Corporate Work Study Program to generate up to 50% of each student's tuition contribution. Today, 32 Cristo Rey schools in 21 states and the District of Columbia provide a quality, Catholic, college preparatory education to over 11,000 young people with limited economic means who live primarily in urban communities, offering them an opportunity to achieve their full potential and return to their communities as leaders.

Lasallian Education

Since 1680 educational institutions in more than 80 countries have been influenced by the vision and innovative spirit of Saint John Baptist de La Salle, the Founder of the Institute of the Brothers of the Christian Schools and the patron saint of teachers. In the United States and Canada, Lasallian Schools serve more than 100,000 people through a network of 7 colleges/universities, 53 high schools, 19 middle schools, 3 elementary schools, and 25 other innovative ministries.

Stir up your trust in the infinite goodness of God.

*Give honor to your Creator
by leaving the care of your person in the hands of God.*

Don't be troubled about the present or disquieted about the future, but be concerned only about the moment you must now live.

Do not let anticipation of tomorrow be a burden on the day that is passing.

*What you lack in the evening,
the new morning will bring you,
if you know how to hope in God.*

Transforming Lives Since 1680

St. John Baptist de la Salle (April 30, 1651 – April 7, 1719)

John Baptist de la Salle was a French priest, educational reformer, and founder of the Institute of the Brothers of the Christian Schools. He is the patron saint of teachers. He is considered the founder of the first Catholic schools. De La Salle dedicated most of his life to the education of poor children and to the training and formation of teachers in France; in doing so, he started many lasting educational practices.

St. Elizabeth of Hungary (July 7, 1207 – November 17, 1231)

Saint Elizabeth of Hungary also known as Saint Elizabeth of Thuringia, was a princess of the Kingdom of Hungary, and a greatly venerated saint who was an early member of the Third Order of St. Francis, by which she is honored as its patroness. Elizabeth manifested such great love for the poor and suffering that she became the patroness of Catholic charities and of the Secular Franciscan Order.

Alumni Gathering

On the evening of October 9 eight alumni and a Dominican Sister, representing five decades of St. Elizabeth history, gathered at the Cristo Rey De La Salle St. Elizabeth Campus to share memories, express concerns, and contemplate the future of their much loved alma mater. With open hearts and some skepticism the group learned about the Cristo Rey Network, the De La Salle Christian Brothers and the next evolution of St. Elizabeth High School.

All unanimously agreed:

On the athletic fields and courts the colors must be red and white

Regardless of the name, a school in service of this community must remain
